

ANTONY RIECK

Liminal Studio
342 South Terrace,
South Fremantle 6162
+61421168480

AART Collab
Leura Street,
Hobart 7018
+61421168480

Antony Rieck is an emerging multidisciplinary artist based in Walyalup, Western Australia and Nipaluna, Tasmania. Of Indigenous Māori descent, he deeply values and understands the connection to Country. Through his work, Antony engages with nature on various levels, from painting and sculpture to cultivating living artifacts. Antony is currently completing his Bachelor of Creative Arts at Curtin University.

EDUCATION /AWARDS

Bachelor of Creative Arts, Fine Art Major, Curtin University (3rd Year)

Vice Chancellor List Award (2023, 2024)

Advanced Diploma in Civil Engineering (NZCE), New Zealand,

Engineers Australia National Multimedia Award, 2013

American Institute of Architects, Photographer of the Year, 2003

EXHIBITIONS

- August 2025 Dubai Global Sustainability Challenge Finalist
- June 2025 Print Group Show, University of Tasmania
- June 2025 Ceramics Group Show, University of Tasmania.
- May 2025 Belmont Art Prize Finalist
- June – September 2024 End of Semester Group show (Noodlism #4) at The Quarter Gallery, Curtin University
- June 2024 End of Semester Group Show (Noodlism 1,2 & 3), Research Space, Curtin University

- June 2023 End of Semester Group Show Installation Shadow of the Tree, AV Room, Curtin University